

Dawn Droblich

MSIA Executive Secretary

Ms. Droblich has been the Executive Secretary of the Michigan Self-Insurers' Association (MSIA) since 2014. She also sits on several Boards to include the Board of Managers for the National Council of Self-Insurers where she represents the interests of Michigan self-insured employers, and Chairman of the Board of Directors for the non-profit Wolverine Human Services whose mission is to provide for the safety and therapeutic intervention for children. Ms. Droblich graduated cum laude from the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor in 1987. She graduated from Tulane University Law School in New Orleans, LA in 1990. Ms. Droblich was the recipient of the American Jurisprudence awards in Interschool Junior and Senior Trial Competitions. She twice won the Louisiana Trial Lawyers' Association Moot Court Award. She was a member of the National Trial Team, the Moot Court Board of Tulane University and the Order of the Barristers.

Ms. Droblich is admitted to practice in the State of Michigan, the United States District Court, Eastern District of Michigan. She is also a member of the following organizations: Michigan Bar Association, Worker's Compensation Section, Oakland County Bar Association, Michigan Council of Self-Insured Group Administrators, Public Risk Management Association, Polish Advocates Bar Association, Women Lawyers Association of Michigan, and the Michigan Supreme Court Historical Society. Ms. Droblich has specialized in the field of Worker's Compensation for her entire career. She is a Partner at Lacey & Jones in Troy, MI where she has worked for over 30 years representing the interests of the self-insured community.