

Jack A. Nolish

Director

Workers' Disability Compensation Agency

Michigan Department of Labor and Economic Opportunity

Lansing, Michigan

Jack Nolish brings more some 50 years of professional experience to his position as Director of the Michigan Workers' Disability Compensation Agency. Jack has also served as Deputy Director, magistrate, and chair of the Board of Magistrates. Prior to his appointments, he was a shareholder in the law firm of Meklir, Nolish, Friedman and Associates, PLLC, successfully representing injured and disabled individuals in worker's compensation and Social Security Disability claims. He has lectured on Workers' Compensation for the Institute of Continuing Legal Education; Michigan Association for Justice; Michigan Self-Insurers Association; Michigan State University Eastern Michigan University; various labor and disability groups. He has testified before the Michigan House and Senate committees on workers' compensation issues. Mr. Nolish received his BA in Political Science from Oakland University and his JD from Wayne State University Law School. He is the leader of the Michigan Capital Ukulele Players and the PT Strummers Road Band.